Knowing and Being Known

Some of our closest friendships begin in a casual way at the school gate or in pursuit of a common interest. Our relationship with God may begin by knowing about Him but not Knowing Him in a personal way. Jesus wanted His disciples to know God as He did so He taught them to pray.

‘Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth; as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever’. Amen

You can see how these words draw us into a closer more honest and open relationship with our Father in heaven. Jesus lived as He prayed and so his disciples followed.

Make 2022 a year for a closer walk with God

Reading Mark

The author of the Gospel by that name was a friend of Peter a disciple of Jesus and the leader of the small company of the early church in Jerusalem so he writes from first-hand experience. The title and summary of the content is in the first words he wrote, 'the beginning of the gospel (good news) of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.' Reading Mark would be a good way to start the New Year. Later you could join 'Christianity Explored' when we will look at Mark and talk about what we have discovered and what needs further exploration.
